Some and daughters of the town, who have gone out from the old hospital to make their homes in other towns and states, are cordially invited to subscribe for this paper.

It will bring you a generous weekly budget of home news and will revive, as nothing will, old time memories. We hope to give it the genuine flavor of the sea and of this rock-bound coast.

COHASSET.

Though not quite so absent minded as the man who put the tea-kettle to bed and sat on the stove himself to boil, we must plead guilty to a slight tendency in that direction when in our last issue we called a meeting of those interested in a course of lectures and gave no date. The meeting will be held Monday evening at the assistants room in the High School and we hope that sufficient interest will be manifested among our townspeople to make the matter a success.

Thanksgiving day passed off very quietly in Cohasset; the churches were very poorly attended, and the day was as great a contrast to the Thanksgiving day of old as could well be imagined. The light snow which had fallen during the night, was not of sufficient depth for sleighing but just deep enough to make it hard wheeling; the youngsters, however, improved the occasion with their sleds and imparted to the scene a little life.

James Brenock has been held for trial before the Grand Jury on Monday.

ABOUT TOWN.

We are happy to say that Mr. Daniel N. Fowler of National City, whose services were mentioned, has recovered and is able to be out.

The Ladies' Charitable Society of the First Parish will hold their first monthly tea-party of the season at Tower's Hall, Wednesday evening.

These meetings have been productive of much pleasure to the members of the parish in past years, and will, no doubt, be as enjoyable this winter as ever.

Mr. Abraham H. Tower, Jr., was recently the victim of an accident by which the tip of one of his fingers was taken off by a sliding door. The injury is not of a serious nature and is doing well.

The sermon of Rev. H. Price Collier, delivered at the First Church last Sunday, has elicited many words of praise.

Capt. James Anderson is erecting a

SCITUATE.

Mr. Henry Ellas is spending Thanksgiving at Portland, Me.

Miss Adair Bonney returned from her school at Kingston, Friday.

Eddie Edson has been visiting friends in Boston the past week.

Miss Ida Fernald is spending Thanksgiving with friends in So. Boston.

We understand that Mr. Badger has sold his drug store to a New York man.

Mrs. W. P. Litchfield of Weymouth is visiting her father, Mr. F. C. Nightingale.

Where is the "leatherstocking club?"

A box was seen at the State Mills,

Monday.

Arrived 28th, Schooner James Neilson, from Bangor, with lumber for E. P.

Welch & Son.

The snowstorm of Sunday night stopped the town clock, and we miss its gladsome ring.

Mr. and Mrs. Job Clapp have returned from their visit to their daughters in Chelsea.

The young people have been enjoying the first fall of snow, this week very much, coasting.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Snow are spending their Thanksgiving with Mrs. S.'s parents at Hartford, Ct.

It is rumored that there will be a large number of matrimonial knots tied in Scituate, Thanksgiving.

There was a union Thanksgiving service at the Centre Congregational church, Thursday, at 10.30 A. M.

An account of the Golden Wedding of Mr. and Mrs. John Brown, which occurred on Tuesday (Wednesday), will be given next week.

Mr. Thomas Maddock, on account of sickness returned home from the past Saturday, where he has been for the past four months.

Miss Eva Fernald has gone to Cam-bridgeport for a short visit. Master Charles Fernald is spending a few days with his grandmother in So. Boston.

The members of the fraternity are planned to learn that Bro. John was unable to attend the gathering on Tuesday evening, on account of the effects of the cold on his throat.

Those who failed to attend the lecture given by Rev. A. A. Wright last Thursday evening, in the M. E.

Church, upon "The Old or New Testament, Which?" missed a rare treat, a lecturer well understood his subject and had a very pleasant way of interesting his hearers. His blackboard illustrations, as well as his anecdoes, were to the point and well received.

The letter published below, gives the reason why Mr. James Poole is removed from the work on the breakwater.

UNITED STATES ENGINEER OFFICE, WATERMAN, Nov. 27, 1882.

G. A. R. NOTES.

The Comrades of Post 31 are talking of erecting a large hall at the Centre, as they find their present quarters too cold and in a dilapidated condition.

The Post will be inspected Dec. 11.

There will be a camp fire at Hatch-ville on Saturday evening, Dec. 23.

Post 112 was inspected last Monday, and was found to be in a prime condition.

A Part was formed in Cohasset last Monday evening with C. A. Grose as commander. The Post starts with forty (40) members.

Where are the Sons of Veterans who were so anxious to form? The papers are all ready. Fall in!

SCITUATE CENTRE.

Mr. Hatherly Merritt has made an addition to his house.

Mr. Albert Brown, who has been at work in Quincy, is at home suffering with a sprained wrist.

Rev. Will C. Wood by request will preach next Sabbath a sermon appropriate to the death of the two girls of the Hulse family who died recently of the malignant disease, diphtheria.

The Neighborhood Church Convention at the Scituate Centre. Evangelism Church was a season of great interest. The themes discussed were

"Holiness," "Sins and Sinners," and "What are Evangelical Doctrines."

There were present beside the pastor,

Rev. G. Vager of Cohasset and Rev.

Mr. Sheffield of Marshfield, who in the main conducted the discussions.

Rev. Mr. Seaver was present in the morning session and made an interesting address on "Sins." The whole day was an enjoyable one. In the</
